

Mobility/Travel Training Program CLIENT CONSENT FORM FOR THE BLIND

North County Transit District's Mobility/Travel Training Program provides training in the proper and safe use of regional Transit buses. NCTD's Mobility Trainers do not provide training in community orientation or street crossing techniques. Program participants who are blind or visually impaired are expected to have completed an Orientation and Mobility program for the Blind from a recognized service provider prior to enrollment in NCTD's Mobility and Travel Training Program.

I _____ (Trainee) understand that NCTD's Mobility Trainers will not provide any training in street crossing techniques, and that all street crossings during training will be conducted with the aid of a sighted guide.

I _____ (Trainee) am capable of independently crossing streets and intersections, and have acquired the mobility skills necessary to begin NCTD's Mobility/Travel Training Program. I _____ (Trainee) understand that information regarding the training will be recorded upon observation. Photographs, videotape, or digital recordings; may be used during training; NCTD or agents have the right to use these in any and all media, now or hereafter and that I may review that information at any time.
